An urgent request to remain in Christ
Galatians 4:8-20

Paul urges the Galatians to remain in Christ

1. By remembering your life before Christ, so you don't forget what you have in Christ.
2. By remembering the compassion and gratitude you displayed in first receiving the gospel.
3. Because any religious teaching motivated by anything other than forming Christ in you is counterfeit.

Recently I had someone ask me, "What are some of the key activities of the DASH Ministry?" We have five key teams, with 6-8 individuals, that plan the activities for DASH. These teams are:

occurs in LifeGroups in Westwood. We have five LifeGroups of DASH members only and three intergenerational groups. While we grow spiritually, we also deepen our relationships with each other.

DASH, WESTWOOD'S 50s+ MINISTRY

by Dave Klinefelter, DASH Deacon

- Social Connection Team
- Information Team
- Spiritual Growth Team
- Service Team
- Physical Team

Our mission starts with building and deepening our relationships with existing attenders, especially focusing on making DASH-age newcomers feel welcome at Westwood. Westwood has about 300 DASH 50s+ attenders. We accomplish relationship building with our monthly luncheons, game nights, Paramount Theater nights, mystery dinners, Rox baseball games, hiking, etc. Building relationships often happens with events that focus on other objectives.

Our Service Team focuses on identifying good works that God has prepared for us to do. New mothers ministry, caroling at local senior living centers, and cleaning Westwood's kitchen, are just a few things we do. Many members of our group also volunteer in the community.

DASH members have a need for information that will make their lives easier. For example, many of us need technology help, info on wills and trusts, and financial planning. Our Information Team conducts seminars or refers individuals to others when needed.

Oh, Yes! DASH members have a lot of energy to burn. Our Physical Team looks

We also provide opportunities for spiritual growth. There is a strong desire amongst our DASH members to grow spiritually. A lot of our spiritual growth for opportunities for building relationships through outdoor activities. These activities can be Rox ball games, walks, trips/tours for DASH members. We invite everyone to join us on the upcoming Rox ball game & tailgating party on Fri, July 28.
