I have been attending the men's No Regrets Conference at various host churches since 2011. I was drawn to this event because I was searching for fellowship with other Christian men, and wanting to learn about how to become a better Christian man, husband and father.

churches hosting this event because it was that important for us to go. I am thankful that Westwood has agreed to once again host this event for the 3rd consecutive year. Westwood evens provides lunch in the price, making it a really good deal!

MEN WON'T REGRET ATTENDING "NO REGRETS"

By Tim Rajkowski, Westwood Attender

There are very few opportunities in central MN for Christian men to get together for a day and listen to great speakers on a variety of topics that would help them grow so this event captured my attention.

Throughout the years, there have been many good speakers at these conferences that have enriched my life. Here are a few of the topics that I recall that have impacted me: How to lead like a man, When good men are tempted, How to be a legacy dad, and Men of honor.

I was really impacted by a speaker from one of the past conferences named James MacDonald. After the conference, I searched and found out he has a daily program on TBN, and I have been watching him daily during my workout ever since.

In the past, some of us had to travel to Willmar and Buffalo when there were not any local

I look forward to this conference each year and I would like to say that this is an excellent opportunity for Christian men, young and old alike, to get together to hear great national speakers on various topics that are real to men. I know now why they call this conference "NO REGRETS."

Sign up today on your Connect Card or at the Connection Pointe. Cost is only $25 ($5 for college students) and includes lunch.
