

DISCUSSION GUIDE

THIS WEEK: The Woman at the Well [John 4:1-42]

GETTING STARTED

What is one thing you are thankful for this week and what is one thing we can pray for you this week?

Remind each other of our simple expectations for meeting together

Think of a time when a simple misunderstanding has caused confusion or a problem in a relationship. What happened? Did it get resolved?

QUICK REACTIONS

- How would you summarize/paraphrase the message in your own words?
- What point/idea resonated most with you? Why?
- Did you disagree with something said, or what do you think should have been added or expanded on?

QUESTIONS FROM THE MESSAGE

2. In what way do things (what divides us, distinctions, grievances from the past) keep us from moving into a deeper relationship with Jesus?
3. In what way does what transpires at this well point to Jesus being the Savior of the World?

QUESTIONS THAT HELP US UNDERSTAND THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE TEXT

What surprises you most about this interaction Jesus has with this woman?
What "groups" of people do you most feel uncomfortable being around? Why?
How could things like people's backgrounds, traditions, questionable moral character, identifications and associations become the things we see first in people affect what Jesus has called us to?
How does "prejudice" affect our "witness" as Christians?
What dry wells do we tend to keep going back to in order to quench our thirst?
What barriers keep us from seeing Jesus for who He is? What barriers do we seem to stay stuck in, focused on that keep us from being more deeply united in a relationship with Jesus?
What tasks, priorities get in the way, or compete for your attention in your walk with God?
Who do you think Jesus is? (categories, like skeptical, prophet, messiah or savior?) What do you think influences people most in the way they think of Jesus? What could we do about it?
What led you to believe in Jesus? In what ways do you think you misunderstood who Jesus is or what He came to do?
How has someone's "testimony", or their story impacted your life or the lives of others?
